

MARCH 2010

- Juneau Arts & Humanities Council, 350 Whittier St. at JACC (former Armory Building). Oil paintings by Timi Johnson, Carol Jordan, and Teri Robus will be on display in the exhibit "Look Again". The combined show provides a kaleidoscope of understanding to be interpreted and experienced by each individual. All viewers are encouraged to "Look Again." 4:30 - 7pm.
- KTOO Studios, 360 Egan Dr. Continuing Exhibit: New works by photographer Ron Klein.
- Alaska State Museum, 395 Whittier St. 1) Volunteers from the Marie Drake Planetarium will present special programming using the museum's "Science on a Sphere" exhibit, which can replicate events on the surfaces of the sun and planets. Continuing Exhibits: 1) Landscape paintings by Fairbanks artist Bill Brody. 2) Ceramic, glass and metal works by Halibut Cove Sculptor Annette Bellamy. 3) Earth, Fire and Fibre XXVII. The museum will be open late during First Friday with free admission 4:30 - 7 pm.
- Juneau Douglas City Museum, 114 W 4th St. Local artist Puanani Maunu will open an exhibit of abstract landscape paintings. Entitled Southeast Hieroglyphic, Maunu's paintings reflect the memories and emotions evoked by our special everyday places. 4:30-7:30 pm.
- Back Room at the Silverbow Inn & Bakery, 120 2nd. "Seasons of Subsistence" by photographer Nick Hall, is a documentary photography project that explores the subsistence culture of Bristol Bay. 4:30-7:30 pm.
- The Plant People. 224 Seward St. Paintings, Pottery and Calligraphy by Bridget Milligan will be on display. 4:30 - 7 pm.
- The Canvas Community Art Studio & Gallery, 223 Seward St. Works in Paper by Sherri McDonald will be on display. She creates landscapes in collage, inspired by the ever-changing faces of the Alaska landscape. 4:30-7:30 pm.
- Annie Kaill's, 244 Front St. Featured jewelry artist, Sarah Strickling has lived in Southeast for more than a decade. She works with pearls, beads and semiprecious stones, combining them in argentium silver, a 92.5 percent silver alloy that is flexible and tarnish resistant. 4:30-7 pm.
- Aunt Claudia's Dolls Museum, 114 South Franklin St., Suite 105, above Hearthside Books. Continuing Exhibit: On display is a collection of Claudia Kelsey, containing more than 500 dolls and miniatures collected from all over the world. 2-7 pm.
- Juneau Artists Gallery, 175 S. Franklin (in the Senate Building). Colorful whimsical mixed media collages by Cathy Parmelee will be on display. Parmelee is the newest member of the cooperatively run gallery. She will be available to discuss her work during First Friday. 4:30 - 7.
- Glory Hole Shelter, 247 S. Franklin St., The Juneau Homeless Coalition will continue its presentation of "Out of the Rain: A Snapshot of Homelessness," a gallery showing of photographs taken in and around Juneau for the 2010 calendar "Out of the Rain." Photographs are taken by Juneau photographers Scot Allen, Lance Caldwell, Marilyn Holmes, Doug Sturm and Teri Tibbett. The reception will include a live music performance by Teri Tibbett, followed by the music of L.Z. and B.C. from Stoned Soup. 5-7 pm.
- Nugget Mall, 8745 Glacier Hwy, Over 200 student artworks will be on display at the Juneau School District's All-City Elementary Art Show. Closes on March 8.
- The Homespun Mercantile, in the Airport Shopping Mall (Across from Alaska Dames & Gents, next to Curves.) Glass artist Kim Andrews is the featured artist of the month. 4-7 pm.
- Jim Kelly Insurance, 9109 Mendenhall Mall Road, #1. Averyl Veliz presents her artwork and her book "A Klondike Tale". Veliz's pieces were designed as screenshots for a future animated movie, telling an original tale that takes place in the 1898 Klondike Gold Rush.

JAHC EVENTS COMING UP

AHN TRIO

SAT, MAR 6, 7:30 PM
JDHS AUDITORIUM

Redefining the art and architecture of chamber music from Dvorak to The Doors

Brought to you by:

Juneau Arts & Humanities Council
586-ARTS, www.jahc.org

KUTANDARA MARIMBA EXPERIENCE

FRI, MAR 26, 7:30 PM
TMHS AUDITORIUM

Fusing African music traditions with jazz, gospel, classical, & Latin.